CLEBURNE.

Streams Previously Dry Begin to Flow The Water Supply Cut Off Special to the Gazette.

CLEBURNE, TEX., Jan. 20 .- The pump in the artesian well having by some means got out of fix to-day, the supply of water to the city will be stopped until the break is remedied. The water seems to be inexhaustible, but it takes constant pumping to supply the demand.

To-day a wagon-load of hogs from Hood county were sold in Cleburne at the small price of $1.50 each. The person who sold the hogs gave as a reason for selling them so cheap that he could not keep them up and feed them as the hog law which has passed required.

Sheriff Boyd, in his official capacity, sent $140 to Justice Schuhl of Dallas county for another party there. In a few days 'Squire Schuhl, it is reported, de-parted to parts unknown without making prices tending downward, but a better an official return of the money. Sheriff Boyd returned from Dallas this morning. An effort is being made to hold Mr. Boyd responsible for the money.

The produce market is somewhat overstocked and prices are weak. The qualquality of fruit would bring good figures.

During the past week the New York stock market has been extremely dull and spiritless. Interest has centered in a few special stocks, and the activity shown beginning to run in Nolan's river and kobinson branch. These streams have been, up to this time, almost entirely position both of the public and the leading operators is to keep out of the market the county. It is quite a peculiar freak until the inter-state commerce bill is disposed of, and, if made a law, until its actual effects are more clearly defined. The bear element make use of this and other arguments, such as the Nickel Plate decision, with which they have been lately furnished, as reasons for a present decline in values. It is not, however, thought that the short interest outstanding is an extraordinarily heavy one, and the appearances favor the idea that the in our town, and the county is as yet but bear party limit their activity to expressparsely settled, and most of those who are here, like in all other new countries, prepared to inaugurate a free selling are hard run; but seem determined and should the market give evidence of seriwilling to exert every effort to raise a ous instability.
